MEYER-REIDL

At nine o'clock Tuesday forenoon, at the Catholic church, Miss Katherine Meyer was married to Mr. Frank Reidl, of Albert, Kansas. Miss Marie Kremer was bridesmaid and Mr. Leonard Schneider, of Albert, Mr. Reidl's cousin, attended as best man. The Rev. Father Rice performed the ceremony before the altar of the church. Before the service Mrs. M. J. Beausang sang as an offertory, "Ave Maria." She was accompanied by Mr. Miller, the organist, who also played the wedding music.

The bride wore a plum colored suit and a white hat and carried a prayer book decorated with a beautiful floral marker, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Mayo.

The wedding party was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Little.

Mr. Reidl is a worthy young man and Miss Meyer was one of Claffin's most popular young ladies, who, during her three years' residence here, had formed many close friendships. After a honeymoon in Pueblo and Denver they will be at home in Albert.—Claffin Clarion.

MARKET REPORT.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 2.—Cattle advanced 25 to 75 cents last week, under the favorable influences of a reduction of 13,000 head from the previous week in the supply, coupled with a stronger demand from the country. Stockers and feeders sold 40 to 75 higher, killing grades 25 to 50 higher. The Bureau of Animal Industry quarantined the Chicago stock yards Saturday against shipments to the country of stock and feeding cattle and sheep. This and a good demand from killers caused an excited market here this morning, and sales were strong to 25 higher, receipts 22,000 head. Packers are reported to be in great need of meat to fill war contracts, and newspaper statements are current that some contracts have been turned over to independent slaughterers by the big packers. No prime cattle were here today, some heavy steers at $9.25 to $9.85, and yearlings at $9 being the best here. Prime cattle are extremely scarce, and quotable up to $11, with the probability that they will continue firm. Kansas grass cattle sold up to $8.10, and some fed westerns at $9. Colorado feeders sold at $7.70, horned killers at $7.40, medium quality Colorado feeders at $7, Colorado-Texas beef steers at $6.80, prices close to the high point on this class of cattle. Choice New Mexico yearlings at $8.45, Panhandle two-ups to $7.85, feeders $7.50, stock calves $7.50 to $8.25, cows up to $6, weals $10.50. Quarantine arrivals amounted to 73 cars, market unevenly higher, some medium steers at $6.75, top price paid in the last 10 days.

Hog receipts were 9,000 today, market steady to order buyers, who paid up to $7.40, about 5 lower to packers, who stopped at $7.35. The winter packing season opens today, and killers are anxious to make as heavy a killing record in November as possible. It has been their aim to put the market down to a basis where they can compete freely for hogs, without being occupied in putting prices down, and this point is believed to have been reached.

Sheep receipts today were 15,000, market strong to 10 higher, top lambs $8, paid for natives. Fat ewes are worth up to $5.50, feeding lambs $6.25 to $7. The closure of the Chicago market to feeding sheep will cause more westerns to be disposed of at the Missouri river markets and Kansas City is probably better able to handle a surplus from the source than any other market, account of the light receipts of westerns now coming here.

WEST COMANCHE Special Correspondence

Merritt Flanders has returned home from Colorado. He says you can talk about "Through Missouri on a Mule" or "On the Slow Train Through Arkansas," but did you ever ride on the slow train through Western Kansas? Out there the passengers get off the train and throw rocks at prairie dogs, kill rattlesnakes, and when noon comes they sometimes go ahead to a farm house and get dinner and rest till the train comes along. He says they use the trains more to keep out of storms than to make a swift trip, for it rains out west—sometimes.

Bill Koch moved the old school house in Dist. 55 to his farm last Saturday.

West Comanche was pretty well represented in Great Bend last Saturday.

Gordon Flanders will finish the work on Pete Foelger's house this week.
